

N.C. TRANSPORTATION MUSEUM SOCIAL NARRATIVE

I am going to the N.C. Transportation Museum.

There are many exhibits for me to see!

yes

During my adventure, I can point to a picture to tell my family or friends if I need to go to the restroom, take a break, or get a drink.

I can touch things inside the museum that are not behind a chain.

Other things, I can only look at. These items are behind a chain or glass.

Some of the areas of the museum are loud. I can move to another area of the museum if I want.

all done

If there are too many people and I don't like it, I can tell my family or friends that I am "all done."

When I arrive, I will check in at the Barber Junction Visitor Center.

This is where I can buy my ticket to visit the museum or ride the train!

After I buy my ticket, I will get a wristband.

I can wear my wristband on my wrist or put it on my backpack or my clothing.

There are special sensory backpacks that I can borrow from the Barber Junction Visitor Center.

Inside are fidgets, a schedule, and headphones for me to use during my adventure. I will return the backpack when I am finished.

In the Back Shop, I will see wagons, trucks, airplanes and cars!

In the Roundhouse I can see a caboose, airplane and locomotives. I can walk through train cars too!

I can visit Bumper To Bumper and see old cars and trucks!

I have to ask my family or friends if we can go to the Gift Station. Remember to use walking feet and quiet voices. It is okay to feel sad about leaving.

Remember, I can come back another time.

I am going to have so much fun at the N.C.
Transportation Museum!
